
Fall Convocation

Friday, August 22, 2014 • Red Square • 9 a.m.

The Salisbury University Promise

As a Salisbury University student—
I will connect what I learn to how I live.
I will demonstrate personal and academic integrity.
I will respect diverse groups and individuals.
I will strive to bring honor to myself and the University.

May 10, 2005, endorsed, Faculty Senate

O Alma Mater, standing wise and stately,
We dedicate our song to thee–
A song of praise, a song of deep devotion,
A song of love and endless loyalty.
Salisbury University, our Mater,
Thy portals stand, an open door
Through which we enter lives of deeper wisdom,
Oh, we shall love thy name forever more.

Recessional* . . . . . Salisbury University Concert Band

*The audience will please stand.

Immediately Following Convocation:

New Student Reader Discussions

Various Locations

This is your first classroom experience at Salisbury University! Faculty and staff lead group discussions about the new student reader, The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks by Rebecca Skloot. This is your opportunity to share your thoughts and ideas about this narrative and reflect on the insights shared at Convocation. Please see an orientation leader if you need assistance with building or room assignment.

11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.:

Departmental Open Houses

Various Locations

Become acquainted with school and department faculty prior to the beginning of fall classes. This introduction allows you to identify who can answer questions and helps you adjust to the new academic environment. Please refer to the academic open house location sheet received during the new student reader discussion for exact locations for each major.

SU is an Equal Opportunity/AA/Title IX university and provides reasonable accommodation given sufficient notice to the University office or staff sponsoring the event or program. For more information regarding SU's policies and procedures, please visit www.salisbury.edu/equity.
